Its football Saturday at the nation's most famous college football stadium, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California as the UH Rainbow Warriors battle the Bruins of UCLA.

Our hale in Pasadena is at the Hyatt Place Pasadena, ideally located, just a few minutes' walk to Old Pasadena. A wide variety of shopping, dining, and entertainment awaits you. Pasadena is a community with a preppy old soul, a historical perspective, an appreciation for art and jazz.

While the Rose Bowl Parade and football game may have given Pasadena its long-lasting fame, it's the spirit of this genteel city and its location beneath the lofty San Gabriel Mountains that make it a charming and attractive place to visit. Its immaculate streets are shaded by gnarled, native oaks and lined with grand old craftsman mansions and mid-century modern apartment buildings. There are museums and gardens, as well as lively Old Pasadena, a bustling 20-block shopping and entertainment district set up in historic brick buildings along Colorado Blvd west of Arroyo Parkway.

There is also a second touring day to Los Angeles to enjoy some of its unique highlights, Sunset Strip, Beverly Hills, Griffith Park & Observatory, and the Hollywood Bowl.

On Sunday, we are off to Las Vegas by charter bus, for 3 nights at the California Hotel and Casino.

Join us, won't you on this fun filled escorted UH Road Warrior tour.

- Keith Jackson Broadcast Center
- Court of Champions and more!

From here we are off to the Huntington Library, Art Collections and Botanical Gardens or more commonly known simply as The Huntington, one of the world's great cultural, research, and educational centers.

This private, non-profit institution was founded in 1919 by Henry E. Huntington, an exceptional businessman who built a financial empire that included railroad companies, utilities, and real estate holdings in Southern California. He was also a man of vision – with a special interest in books, art, and gardens. During his lifetime, he amassed the core of one of the finest research libraries in the world, established a splendid art collection, and created an array of botanical gardens with plants from a geographic range spanning the globe.

On arrival, we will be met by museum docents for a one-hour walking tour of the estate including the world-renowned galleries and gardens. Enjoy learning how Henry and Arabella Huntington turned their San Marino Ranch into a world-famous cultural landmark. Our tour is scheduled to begin at 11:30am.

For more information on the Huntington, please visit them online at www.huntington.org.

After the tour enjoy free time here for lunch and explore on your own. Please meet back by 2:45pm for our return to the hotel. Once back, the remainder of the afternoon and evening is free.

Once we are back at our hotel, the remainder of the afternoon and evening is free.

After breakfast, please meet in the lobby by the designated time as we are off to Los Angeles, The Highlights of LA tour, custom designed for our group.

Our tentative schedule begins with meeting our step-on guides in the lobby at 8:00am. Once in Los Angeles, a brief stop at Grauman's Chinese Theater on the way to Sunset Strip. What is great about Sunset Strip and Beverly Hills is all the stories and actual Hollywood lore behind the stars. Sit back and enjoy as our guide takes us back to the 30's and 40's golden age of Hollywood, then the 60's and 70's history of rock and roll and LA gangster lore.

There is also a visit to Griffith Park and Griffith Observatory, one of Los Angeles's greatest gems. Enjoy stunning views of Los Angeles from the historic park and observatory.

For a lunch break, we are off to the Farmers Market at the Grove, a wonderful and quaint main street feel with endless food options.

The afternoon ends with a tour of the Hollywood Bowl, a premier destination for live music in southern California. This amphitheater in the Hollywood Hills of Los Angeles opened in 1922 and has been named one of the 10 best live music venues in America.

Now, back to Pasadena, arrival by 5pm and the remainder of the evening is free.
