→ 9:30am – Start our day at Shinjuku Gyoen National Garden, a prime destination for cherry blossom viewing with over 1,200 trees of various species that may be in bloom. The garden is divided into three distinct sections: the traditional Japanese landscape garden with serene ponds, islands, and bridges; the French garden, renowned for its romantic atmosphere and abundant flowers like roses; and the English landscape garden with expansive open lawns surrounded by flowering cherry trees. Beyond these themed areas, the park offers forested zones, additional lawns, a restaurant, an art gallery, and the stunning greenhouse showcases a diverse array of tropical and subtropical flora.

→ 11:00am – Now, a stop at Harajuku & Omotesando, the heart of all things trendy and eccentric. More than just its colorful street art and its youth-driven quirky fashion culture, this area is also a haven for sweets like gigantic cotton candy, crepes, and cream puffs. There is also a multi-story Daiso nearby.

→ 1:45pm – Onto our next exciting Taiyaki making experience! This iconic golden fish-shaped pastry dates back hundreds of years to the Edo period, with its first iteration being a round-shaped cake filled with azuki bean paste. During this era, tai (sea bream fish) was highly prized seafood and was gifted to esteemed figures like the shogun. Overtime, tai evolved to become symbols of luck, prosperity, and happiness in Japanese culture.

→ 3:00pm – Here we are at Asakusa’s iconic Sensoji Temple and Kaminarimon Gate (aka “Thunder Gate”) with its massive lantern. This spot is a “must see” in every guidebook and boasts over 30 million annual visitors. Traditionally, once you reach the top of the temple steps, you should clap twice and bow your head as a sign of respect. With the belief that coins trap the dangers of daily life, visitors also customarily make a small offering by tossing coins into a wooden rack, tossing away those dangers as well.

You’ll also find the Five Storied Pagoda there. Regarded as one of the “Four Edo Pagodas,” this nearly 174 foot monument stands to represent Tokyo’s few remaining pagodas.
