→ Breakfast at hotel.

→ 8:30am – Meet your guide at the hotel lobby for a full day tour in Tokyo.

→ 9:00am – Our day begins with a visit to Tsukiji Outer Market. A renowned bucketlist spot, Tsukiji is the largest fish market in the world. While the inner auction market relocated to Toyosu in 2018, the charm remains in its outer market. Be sure to enjoy all that the outer market has to offer, from seasonal produce and candy tasting to knife-making artisan shops.

→ 11:30am – Here we are at Ueno Park, famous for its breathtaking cherry blossoms. With approximately 1,200 cherry trees adorning this 133-acre park, it attracts an estimated 2 million visitors who come to enjoy the beauty of cherry blossom viewing while picnicking under the trees and appreciating the natural splendor along the pathways.

→ 12:45pm – Now, a visit to Ueno & Ameyoko Shopping Street. This is the absolutely perfect place to get your omiyage. "Ameyoko" is short for "Ameya Yokocho" or "candy shop back alley" since candies were traditionally sold there. Alternatively, it is short for "America," a callback to the post-WWII era when American products were sold there illegally. Now, the street is lined with over 400 shops from cooked street food, snacks like dried squid, and fresh seafood to clothes, bags, accessories, cosmetics, and much more!

→ 3:00pm – Return to hotel. Enjoy the remainder of the day of shopping and dining at leisure.

Day 4: (Sun) March 30 – Tokyo (B) Grand Nikko Tokyo Daiba (Free Wi-Fi)

→ Breakfast at hotel.

→ 9:30am – Our day begins with a stroll through Meiji Jingu Shrine, a Shinto shrine built in 1920 to honor Emperor Meiji, the first emperor of modern Japan, and his wife, Empress Shoken. Nestled in a forest with muffled sounds of the bustling city in the near distance, Meiji Jingu Shrine first welcomes visitors with an enormous wooden torii gate. While exploring the vast grounds, you'll find over 200 sake and wine barrels, gifted by famous breweries from across Japan as sacred offerings to Emperor Meiji. The display also features wine barrels from France, a tribute to the emperor's affection for wine and promotion of Western culture during the Meiji period. Enhanced by the presence of cherry blossoms, this location offers a perfect setting for cherry blossom viewing.

→ 10:45am – Now, it's time to indulge in Harajuku & Takeshita Dori, the vibrant heart of all things trendy and eccentric. Beyond its colorful street art and youth-driven quirky fashion culture, this area is a delightful haven for sweets, including gigantic cotton candy, crepes, and cream puffs. Enjoy lunch on your own, and don't miss the multi-story Daiso nearby for some shopping fun.

→ 1:30pm – This afternoon, we'll explore Asakusa, a famous district that melds the culture and traditions of ancient Tokyo with the metropolitan styles of modern Japan. It's also home to Japan's first cinema! Widely regarded as the most important temple in Japan, Asakusa's iconic Sensoji Temple and Kaminarimon Gate (aka "Thunder Gate") with its massive lantern are a "must see" in every guidebook, boasting over 30 million annual visitors. Traditionally, as a sign of respect, visitors clap twice and bow their heads at the top of the temple steps. With the belief that coins trap the dangers of daily life, visitors also customarily make a small offering by tossing coins into a wooden rack, tossing away those dangers as well.

You'll also find the Five Storied Pagoda there. Regarded as one of the "Four Edo Pagodas," this nearly 174 foot monument stands to represent Tokyo's few remaining pagodas. The temple grounds also include the Nakamise Shopping Arcade, a lively and extensive shopping street lined with good luck charms, traditional goodies, and Japanese snacks.

→ 3:15pm – Located along the picturesque Sumida River, Sumida Park is a charming spot for cherry blossom viewing, with the iconic Tokyo Skytree as a backdrop. With over 500 cherry trees that bloom in late March, the park stands as one of the city's most renowned hanami spots.

→ 11:00am – First a visit to Coco Farm and Winery, a globally recognized wine producer located in the mountains of Ashikaga city. Coco's wines have been selected for national events like the Kyushu-Okinawa G8 Summit. Most noteworthy is the winery's origins; its collaboration with Cocoromi Gakuen, an institution for people with intellectual disabilities, was formalized in 1980, and Coco continues to provide the students with onsite training and working opportunities to support their independent living.

The temple holds Japan's oldest Buddhist carvings, a small garden, and a treasure hall with ancient relics. Across the street stands a colossal statue of Kannon, serving as a statement of peace after WWII.

→ Welcome to Nikko: an ancient city adorned with moss-covered stone walls and bright red lanterns. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is famous for its rich nature, sacred sites, and historical ties to the Tokugawa Shogunate, boasting 103 religious buildings set amidst picturesque surroundings.

→ 5:00pm – Arrive at Kozuchi no Yado Tsurukame Daikichi, followed by a Japanese style dinner at 6:30pm. Spend some time at the hotel's onsen, a perfect place to unwind and rejuvenate.

forest of green, the shrine's complex includes over a dozen opulently decorated buildings embellished with gold leaf and etched with countless wood carvings.

Particularly notable carvings are the "see no evil, speak no evil, and hear no evil" trio of monkeys, the alluring Sozonozo elephants ("imagined elephants"), and the Nemuri-neko ("Sleeping Cat") wood carving nestled at the top of the Sakashita-mon Gate. → 9:30am – Opened in 2010, Bonsai Art Museum is the world's first publicly run museum dedicated to bonsai art. It boasts a splendid collection of over 100 bonsai masterpieces and works inspired by bonsai culture. Most of the museum's bonsai can be found in the large courtyard, with grander displays than its indoor counterparts.
