Wander around and marvel at the soaring stalks of bamboo that surround you.

to collect items like traditional fans, bamboo goods, and specialty snacks. This is also a great opportunity for you to take a break from walking and hitch a ride on a rickshaw!

→ 12:30pm-2:00pm – One of Kyoto’s three most famous festivals, the Jidai Matsuri is an annual festival that celebrates the anniversary of Kyoto’s founding on October 22. True to its name as the “Festival of Ages,” festival participants and performers don historically accurate clothing from nearly every period of Japanese history and parade from the Kyoto Imperial Palace to Heian Shrine. Festival goers can also find food stalls, traditional performances, and other festivities along this grand procession.

→ 2:30pm – Did you know that Kinkakuji Temple (Golden Pavilion) is covered with real gold? This UNESCO World Heritage Site was originally built in 1397 as Shogun Ashikaga Yoshimitsu’s retirement villa but later converted into a temple.
