→ 9:00am – Meet your guide in the hotel lobby to begin our journey to Kamakura. Established by Minamoto no Yoritomo in 1192, this coastal city served as the seat of Japan's first military government. Kamakura remained the political heart of Eastern Japan for over a century. Today, it is affectionately known as the "Kyoto of Eastern Japan," celebrated for its wealth of ancient temples, shrines, and preserved historical monuments.

→ 10:30am – We arrive at the Great Buddha at Kotokuin Temple. This monumental bronze statue of Amida Buddha stands over 38 feet tall, making it the second-tallest bronze Buddha in Japan. Despite being exposed in the open air since 1495, the statue remains beautifully adorned and well-preserved. Today, it is recognized as one of Japan's most iconic National Treasures. For a small donation, visitors are welcome to enter inside the Buddha to witness the sophisticated 13th-century casting techniques.

→ 12:00pm – Enjoy lunch on your own on Komachi-dori Shopping Street. Be sure to stop by Kamakura's famous cookie store for a sample. They're best known for their dove-shaped butter cookies, which make for a great Kamakura souvenir.

→ 2:30pm – Our next visit is to everyone's favorite, the Nissin's CUPNOODLES Museum. Here, you will trace the fascinating history of instant ramen and peek into a replica of the simple wooden shed where this global phenomenon began.

The highlight of the visit is the My CUPNOODLES Factory workshop, where you become both chef and artist. In this hands-on experience, you will design your own iconic packaging before selecting your favorite soup base and a custom blend of toppings. Be sure to enjoy all that the outer market has to offer, from seasonal produce and local tastings to knife-making artisan shops.

→ 11:00am – Reopened in March 2026 after its first major renovation since 1993, the Edo Tokyo Museum brings Tokyo’s transformation from feudal Edo to modern megalopolis to life through newly updated and expanded exhibits across 6 immersive floors. Standout additions include a full scale Nihonbashi bridge replica, an expanded Edo streetscape with authentic period market stalls, a walkable interior replica of the traditional Nakamura-Za Theater, and a stunning third floor plaza redesigned by acclaimed architect Shohei Shigematsu.

At the top of the temple steps, follow local custom: clap twice, bow your head, and toss a coin into the offering rack to cast away life’s daily dangers. As you wander the temple grounds, you’ll pass through the Nakamise Shopping Arcade, a lively stretch lined with good luck charms, traditional sweets, and Japanese snacks.

→ 4:30pm – Return to hotel. Enjoy the evening at leisure!

As you wander the expansive grounds, you’ll encounter a display of over 200 decorative sake barrels—sacred offerings from Japan’s premier breweries. Beside them, you’ll also find a row of French wine barrels. These serve as a nod to the Emperor’s own palate and his legacy of bridging the gap between Japanese tradition and Western influence.

→ 10:45am – From here, a stop at Harajuku & Omotesando, the heart of all things trendy and eccentric. More than just its colorful street art and its youth-driven quirky fashion culture, this area is also a haven for sweets like gigantic cotton candy, crepes, and cream puffs. Enjoy lunch on your own.
